A WORLD FIRST FOR PORCELAIN

After years of research, the Seltmann Group's porcelain experts have managed to combine the delicate look of cream-coloured soft porcelain with the advantages of hard porcelain.

SELTMANN WEIDEN

The result was porcelain that, in addition to its cream-coloured looks and its velvety texture, also creates a warm, soft appearance.

Thanks to the porcelain's much higher strength and hardness levels and the hardness of the glaze, the porcelain now has a comparatively superior resistance to chips and long-lasting scratch-resistant surfaces.

For the Executive Chef de Cuisine, only the best will do.

ULRICH HEIMANN – a passion for perfection

In the »Le Ciel« fine dining restaurant in the InterContinental Berchtesgaden resort, he is the driving creative force who ensures artisanal finesse, preserving the authentic flavour of dishes. For Ulrich Heimann, the product is always the star in his cuisine – perfection his passion.

When a guest remembers a dish, the chef has achieved his goal, says Ulrich Heimann.

LE CIEL – a little taste of heaven

Despite the gourmet »Le Ciel« restaurant's location in the InterContinental Berchtesgaden resort – at 1,000 metres altitude – the personable chef does not have his head in the clouds. Quite the opposite. When it comes to food preparation, Ulrich Heimann has his feet on the ground. Bells and whistles are not his thing, and less is more according to the chef – under whose auspices the gourmet restaurant was awarded a »Michelin star« and 16 Gault Millau points.
